New World School of the Arts was created by the Florida Legislature. It is an educational partnership of Miami-Dade County Public Schools, Miami Dade College and the University of Florida.

New World School of the Arts is an accredited institutional member of the National Association of Schools of Dance.