

Your commitment

"A society grows great when men plant trees whose shade they know they shall never sit in."

There are no better words to describe how your support to New World School of the Arts [NWSA], through the Legacy Society, can impact the lives of countless future generations of talented young artists.

Each year extremely gifted students from Florida, across the nation and around the world apply to New World School of the Arts in hopes of pursuing a successful career in the arts. Drawn by the school's outstanding reputation, its exceptional artist/faculty and long list of award-winning alumni; many prospective students still face financial hardships that threatens their opportunity to study and train with us.

Through support programs such as the Legacy Society, NWSA strives to help deserving students ameliorate tuition, books, art supplies, and rising costs of living. Unfortunately the demand outweighs our resources but your support can help talented students achieve success.
